DETAILED ACTION

Response to Amendment

1. The amendment was received on 1/29/09. Claims 1-6,10-13,15 and 16 are pending.

Response to Arguments

2. Applicant's arguments, see remarks, page 7, filed 1/29/09, with respect to 35 USC 101 have been fully considered and are persuasive. The rejection of claims 1-6 and 10-13, 15 and 16 has been withdrawn.

Allowable Subject Matter

3. Claims 1-6,10-13,15 and 16 are allowed.
4. The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance:

Claim 1 is allowable as the applicants have already pointed out on page 14 that "Johnson does NOT identify that...residual 238...was calculated."

Accordingly, other prior art does not teach this feature, too. For example, Sugiyama et al. (US Patent 4,797,742) teaches generating a presence difference signal in fig. 1:4 that is output to fig. 1:5. However, fig. 1:5 does not identify that the input signal is a difference signal. Instead, fig. 1:5 is responsive to the output of fig. 1:4. Thus, while fig. 1:5 can identify something from fig. 1:4, fig. 1:5 cannot specifically identify that something being input into fig. 1:5. Furthermore, fig. 1:4 generates the difference signal based on a threshold; thus, the threshold in fig. 1:4 identifies the difference presence signal. Again, the threshold fails in identifying the claimed first difference data as being calculated. From the standpoint of a person reading the patent, the output of fig. 1:4 is clearly a computed difference. However, no single teaching of fig. 1 can identify that a difference was calculated even though the reader of the patent can clearly identify the difference as being calculated. Thus, the interpretation of the reader is not reasonable and appears as hindsight in view of applicant's disclosure and remarks and Sugiyama cannot or does not identify a value as being calculated as required of claim 1.

Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."
